

Be It Proclaimed:

Whereas, Jane Doe has served as an inspiration and strong supporter of the young women and men of the Evanston community; and,

Whereas, Jane Doe has been a pillar of strength during a time when our inner-city communities needed reassurance that they were not alone and the communities had an advocate working on their behalf; and,

Whereas, Jane Doe has led by example, demonstrating sound judgment and reason to all that know her; and,

Whereas, in her continued commitment to the City of Cincinnati, Jane Doe exemplifies courage, perseverance, and dedication and enriches the lives of those she encounters;

Now, Therefore, I, John Cranley,
Mayor of the City of Cincinnati do hereby proclaim July 10, 2015
as “Jane Doe Day”
in Cincinnati.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused this seal of the City of Cincinnati to be affixed this tenth day of July in the year Two Thousand and Fifteen.

John Cranley
Mayor, City of Cincinnati
