# 2 REVIEW MEMO

Complaint #	19183
Complainant	Cheryl Howard and Glenn Gilliam
Incident Date	May 8, 2019
CCA Investigator	Morgan Givens
Allegations	Improper Search Improper Stop

SUMMARY

On 05/08/19, Officer Longworth conducted a traffic stop of Glenn Gilliam, who drove a friend's vehicle. Mr. Gilliam was not advised as to the reason for the traffic stop, but Officer Longworth told him, "I'm gonna get you." Mr. Gilliam and the vehicle were searched and Mr. Gilliam was arrested. Officer Longworth kept Mr. Gilliam's driver's license, insurance card, and roadside assistance card. The vehicle was towed. The vehicle's owner attempted to retrieve the vehicle but Officer Longworth has refused to release the car until she talks to him.

Later that day, CPD officers had a search warrant and searched Mr. Gilliam's residence when no one was present. Officer Longworth used Mr. Gilliam's keys to enter the building. The officers may have located marijuana, but otherwise did not locate anything. It is believed that because Officer Longworth did not locate what he wanted, he purposefully damaged the house. An officer threw Mr. Gilliam's shoes out of a screened window and damaged the screen. The officers searched through the kitchen pantry and dumped food on the floor and pulled the door off the backyard shed. The officers searched a BMW and Altima that were on the property; the officers pulled out wires and caused mechanical damage.

There are four cane corsos in the home; it is believed an officer damaged one dog's left eye. An officer stepped in dog feces and scraped the feces along the jacuzzi tub and toilet. The officers damaged a panel by the jacuzzi tub. It was inaccurately documented that $1500 was removed from the home when $3000 was taken.
