Thieves Listen To Police Radio During Looting

Burglars who looted a safe at the Solway Furniture Co., 132 W. Elder street, took precautions to guard against surprise by police.

Before starting the job of opening the safe the robbers took a new radio from the store stock, placed it beside them in the office and tuned in on Station X, officers said.

Thus they were aware of every move the police cars made during the hours they were in the store, during which they obtained $800.
